Title IX:

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and certain other federal and state laws, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in all education programs and activities operated by the university (both on and off campus). Title IX protects all people regardless of their gender, or gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation from sex discrimination, which includes sexual harassment and violence. All members of the university community are responsible for being aware of and complying with policies and procedures related to Title IX (including CSU Executive Order No. 1096 (Links to an external site.) and No. 1097 (Links to an external site.)). Additionally, all student organization presidents and treasurers are required to complete a training related to Sexual Violence prevention offered by Student Involvement and/or their designee.
